

Diplomacy and China Today: The Hot Issues

Robert D. Griffiths

Deputy minister counselor for political affairs,
U.S. Embassy, Beijing, China

Monday
4 December
3:00 P.M.
238 HRCB

Personal Insights into Careers and Families in the Foreign Service

Robert D. Griffiths joined the Foreign Service in 1983 as a consular officer in Bogota, Colombia. During his twenty-year career, Griffiths served in Europe, Thailand, Taipei, and Shanghai. He currently manages foreign policy relationships with five SE Asia countries and supervises six Foreign Service officers. Griffiths received his BA in Asian Studies from BYU and his master's degree in public policy from Harvard.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY
DAVID M. KENNEDY CENTER
FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDIES