

Asian Studies Lecture
Winter 2007

Japanese Foreign Policy

Yuzo Ota

Consul general of Japan, Denver

Friday, 12 January
2:00 P.M.
238 HRCB

Yuzo Ota was appointed consul general in March 2004, an office that serves Colorado, New Mexico, Utah, and Wyoming. Yuzo's thirty-year diplomatic career spans previous appointments at consulates in Los Angeles and New York; embassies in Tanzania, New Zealand, and Bangladesh; several positions with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Tokyo; and a two-year appointment as chamberlain to the Crown Prince. He graduated from Tokyo University and attended a U.S. university. Yuzo and his wife, Mutsuko, are the parents of a son and a daughter.