

Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Scholarships

U.S. Department of Education scholarships encourage the study of specific underrepresented languages. Students must plan to use the language in their future career.

Weekly Info Sessions

Begin in fall, Thursdays, 11:00 a.m., 257 HRCB

Undergraduate

Full tuition + $5,000 stipend

Graduate

Full tuition + $15,000 stipend

Requirements

Language at 200-level or above

3.0 GPA or better

BYU campus full-time enrollment

U.S. citizen or permanent resident

Application Deadlines

Summer 2016: Wednesday, 11 Nov 2015

Summer FLAS grants are for language immersion programs abroad (minimum 6 weeks and 6 credit hours).

Academic Year 2016-17: Friday, 15 Jan 2016

For the academic-year scholarships, students add one language class (3 credit hours) and one area studies class (3 credit hours) to their curriculum each semester.

Languages Currently Funded by FLAS at BYU

Cebuano

Chinese

Hindi

Indonesian

Japanese

Korean

Tagalog

Thai

Vietnamese

Russian

Brazilian

Portuguese

Guarani

Haitian Creole

K'iche

Quechua

No Events