PREPARATION
Students do not necessarily need prior experience in German language to do an internship in Berlin. Students who would like a more competitive internship should complete GERM 202 prior to departure.

Students are required to participate in IAS 369R, 1 credit hour. This second-block evening course will be held during winter semester 2016

Accompanying spouses need to be credit-bearing participants on the program. Spouses will also need to apply online and take the preparation course.

FUNDING SOURCES
Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to study abroad programs.

Academic departments and colleges may assist with scholarships and grants. Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/scholarships).

The College of Humanities and Department of German Studies and Slavic Languages reserved $2,000 scholarships for German Majors.
