Join us for a session with a delegation of five fascinating individuals who will discuss Japanese society, the economy, women in management, politics, business, and culture. They will discuss Japan’s strengths and the challenges it currently faces.

The delegation is part of the “Walk in U.S., Talk on Japan” program supported by the Prime Minister’s office of Japan.

Refreshments will be served.

For additional information, contact Jeanette Misaka at (801) 277-9303 or jmisaka@earthlink.net.

This program is co-sponsored by the David M. Kennedy Center, Asian Studies, and the Utah chapter of the Japanese American Citizens League.
