The Portuguese Internship and the Portugal DE Study in Portugal Network programs provide a unique cultural and educational experience designed to help students acquire professional and cultural competencies that will allow them to prepare for life after the university. All majors are welcome to apply.

In Portugal, in partnership with the Study in Portugal Network (SiPN), professional internships are available in fields such as medical research, investment banking, international diplomacy and government, design, marketing, and public administration. Fluency in Portuguese is not required for many of the internships offered in Portugal. The current list of internships may be found at this link: (http://www.studyinportugalnetwork.com/category/internships/).

In Brazil, in partnership with the Instituto de Estudos Brasileiros (IEB) at the University of São Paulo, professional internships are available in the field of museum curatorship and archival administration. Other internships are available in the fields of accounting, translation, and marketing. Fluency in Portuguese is required for all internships offered in Brazil.

DATES
Spring or Summer term

HOUSING
In Portugal, students will live in a beautiful eighteenth-century building that has recently been completely remodeled. The residence hall is located in Baixa Pombalina, in Lisbon's historical, commercial, and cultural center.

In Brazil, apartments or host families will be found through local contacts.

BYU policy prohibits students from asking LDS families to provide accommodations.

COURSES
Students must register for 6 credit hours during spring or summer term.
PORT 399R Academic Internship (3 credit hours)
PORT 395R Contemporary Culture (3 credit hours)
Additional course options and direct enrollment may be considered in consultation with the program director.
COST
$3,000–$6,000

For internships or direct enrollment in Portugal, this cost includes LDS undergraduate tuition (increased cost for grads and non-LDS), lodging, in-country excursions, some meals, and international health insurance coverage.

For internships or direct enrollment in Brazil, this cost includes LDS undergraduate tuition (increased cost for grads and non-LDS) and international insurance coverage.

Not included
Airfare, some meals, and personal expenses

PREPARATION
Applicants will be evaluated by a Portuguese language professor upon application to the program. Students going to Brazil must have completed PORT 321 by the end of winter semester 2016.

Students completing an internship are required to enroll in HCOLL 396R: Humanities Leadership and Professional Development. This course will help prepare you to make the most of your internship experience.

Direct Enrollment students are required to participate in an international, cross-cultural preparation course (IAS 201, 1 credit hour). This evening course will be held during the second block of winter semester 2016.

FUNDING SOURCES
Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to study abroad programs.

Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB) will be considered for a study abroad scholarship and may be considered for other scholarships. Students must indicate on their original online application that they want to be considered for financial aid.

Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/scholarships). The College of Humanities offers international internship grants of up to $2,000 to majors within the college.

APPLICATION PROCESS
Complete the online application at kennedy.byu.edu/apply. The application requires a $35 fee. Applications will be interviewed once the application is complete. Students will be notified via email of their acceptance into the program.

Deadline: 31 March 2016

FACULTY
Scott Alvord (801-422-7546, scott_alvord@byu.edu) is the faculty director of the program. Dr. Alvord is a professor of Hispanic Linguistics and Spanish in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese and has directed programs in Spain and Mexico several times.

Rex Nielson (801-422-2176, rex_nielson@byu.edu) is a faculty liaison for this program. Dr. Nielson is a professor of Portuguese and Brazilian Studies in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese. He travels regularly to both Portugal and Brazil and maintains close ties to the Luso-American Development Foundation in Lisbon, Portugal, as well as the Instituto de Estudos Brasileiros in São Paulo, Brazil.

SCHEDULE AND TIME COMMITMENT
Students should plan to be either in Portugal or Brazil for the complete duration of the program and refrain from scheduling late arrivals or early departures. Internships must last for at least 8 weeks.
