

Latin American FLAS Course Offerings for Brazilian Portuguese

The US Department of Education provides some flexibility in determining which courses fulfill the language and area studies courses. Brigham Young University provides robust curricular offerings that fulfill these requirements. In order to assist students in making course selections, the FLAS committee has created a list of pre-approved and potential courses that fulfill FLAS requirements.

Pre-Approved Language Courses

The following courses satisfy the requirements for language:

MSB 596R	Business Portuguese
PORT 201	Third-Semester Portuguese
PORT 202	Fourth-Semester Portuguese: Reading and Comprehension
PORT 205	Portuguese for Spanish Speakers 2
PORT 206	Intensive Portuguese Skills Development
PORT 321	Third-Year Portuguese Reading, Grammar, and Culture
PORT 322	Third-Year Portuguese Grammar and Composition
PORT 323R	Portuguese for the Professions
PORT 325	Survey of Luso-Brazilian Linguistics
PORT 326	Portuguese Phonetics and Pronunciation
PORT 360	Introduction to Translation
PORT 419	(Port-Span) Problems in Translation
PORT 429R	Special Topics in Portuguese Linguistics
PORT 520	Advanced Portuguese Grammar
PORT 521	Romance Philology
PORT 522	History of the Portuguese Language
PORT 529R	Special Topics in Portuguese Linguistics

Pre-Approved Area Studies Courses

The following courses satisfy the requirements for area studies courses.

HIST 356	History of Brazil
PORT 330	Introduction to Portuguese and Brazilian Literature
PORT 351	Survey of Literature of Brazil
PORT 355	Cultures of Brazil
PORT 395R	Brazilian Contemporary Culture
PORT 399R	Academic Internship: Portuguese Language Field Experience
PORT 437R	Women Writers in Portuguese
PORT 452	Machado de Assis
PORT 453	Twentieth-Century Brazilian Literature
PORT 459R	Special Topics in Brazilian Literature
PORT 457R	Special Topics in Cultures of Brazil
PORT 459R	Special Topics in Brazilian Literature

Potential Area Studies Courses

The following courses may satisfy the requirements for area studies, if the student can demonstrate that the final paper or research project will have a strong emphasis on Brazil. The student will need to provide a copy of the course syllabus as well a letter of support from the professor.

GEOG 255	Middle and South America
HIST 251	Conquest & Colonization of Latin America
HIST 252	Modern Latin America
HIST 357	The Indian in Latin American History
HIST 358	Gender and History in Latin America
HIST 359	Inter-American Relations
IHUM 260	Humanities of Latin America
LT AM 211	Introduction to Latin American Studies
LT AM 495	Senior Seminar in Latin American Studies
POLI 358	Latin American Politics
POLI 380	International Relations of Latin America
PORT 438	Luso-Brazilian Cinema
PORT 439R	Luso-Brazilian Theatre Production
PORT 480R	Directed Research in Portuguese
SOC 345	World Populations

Course Substitutions

Do your best to arrange your schedule to take courses listed above. Nevertheless, course substitutions may be made due to schedule conflicts or lack of course offerings. You must submit a formal course substitution request in the form of a memo. Your request must be approved in writing by the FLAS program coordinator, the FLAS selection committee chair, and the coordinator of Latin American Studies.

Include the following in your substitution request:

- the course you wish to take
- a justification for the substitution
- a copy of the syllabus
- a letter of support from the professor

Note: Students in the Law School may potentially count one law class as an area studies course, but they must follow the process outlined above.