

RIGA, LATVIA

STUDY ABROAD SUMMER 2023

Riga is the capital city of Latvia and is situated on the Baltic Sea. Latvia is home to a large ethnic Russian-speaking population, which makes for an excellent location for students to study Russian, live with a Russian-speaking host-family, and take in a beautiful slice of Europe. Students attend language class five days a week and a course on contemporary Russia once a week. In addition, students participate in weekly excursions to historic sites throughout Latvia. Students without any prior knowledge of Russian are welcome on the program and will attend a beginning Russian course.

DATES

24 June–6 August 2023

HOUSING

Students will live with host families and receive two meals a day (breakfast and dinner) seven days a week. All rooms come furnished with a bed, writing desk, and closet.

COURSES

Courses are offered through the Baltic Center for Educational and Academic Development and concentrate on vocabulary development, conversation, pronunciation, and cultural knowledge. Courses are held five days a week for four hours a day. Students will receive credit from among the following courses:

- RUSS 101—Beginning Russian on Study Abroad, Part I (5.0 credits)
- RUSS 211—Second-Year Conversation (0.5 -5.0 variable credits)
- RUSS 301—Intermediate Russian on Study Abroad (2.0 credits)
- RUSS 330—Cultural History of Russia (3.0 credits)
- RUSS 490R—Russian Online Bridge Course (2.0 credits)

COST

$5,700–6,200

Includes Latter-day Saint undergraduate full tuition (increased cost for graduate and non-LDS students), Baltic Center tuition, housing, all program excursions, international health insurance, and visa support.

Does not include airfare, preparation course tuition, or personal expenses.

Part-time BYU students and non-BYU students pay an additional tuition fee of approximately $270 for the preparation course.

TRAVEL

Students are responsible for purchasing their own airfare to and from the program. Airfare reservations must be made through BYU Travel. Students should contact a BYU Travel agent.

PREPARATION

This program caters to students with no prior Russian language experience and those who have completed RUSS 202.

Students are required to participate in a prep course (IAS 369R, 1.0 credit hour) held during the second block of winter semester on Thursdays from 4:00-6:00pm.

Students must meet all country- and program-specific COVID and health requirements for travel.

FUNDING SOURCES

Regular BYU tuition scholarships may be applied to international programs.

Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB) will be considered for a Study Abroad scholarship.

Academic departments and colleges may assist with scholarships and grants. Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/student/scholarships).

Students majoring in the Humanities who complete the preparation course qualify for a College of Humanities program discount that ranges from $1,000–3,000, depending on one's FAFSA score. Contact Dr. Brown for details.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Students must be adults 18 years of age or older to participate. Complete the online application at kennedy.byu.edu/isp-apply. A nonrefundable $35 application fee is required; applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete. Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program. The first payment is due upon acceptance.

Application Deadline: 1 February 2023
