As an intern in either the Europe Area Office of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Frankfurt, Germany, or the South Pacific Area Office in Auckland, New Zealand, you will have a unique opportunity to improve your communications, journalism, and public relations skills. The core purpose of the Church Communication internship is to build strategic relationships with opinion leaders who affect the reputation of the Church, and whose actions and influence can help or hinder the Church's mission. As such you will be involved with a wide variety of ever-changing activities and people in order to facilitate a proper projection of the Church in the Europe or Pacific areas. Depending on your emphasis in Communications, you could find yourself writing press releases, assisting in planning strategic media interaction, researching various media enquiries, assisting in interview and spokesperson training, developing relationships with opinion leaders and participating in various modes of social networking and video production.

DATES
Winter, Spring-Summer combined, or Fall semesters are available, (dates will be determined after acceptance to the program).

HOUSING
The School of Communications will suggest housing options. Students are responsible for making all housing arrangements.

COURSES
All interns are required to take a minimum of 4 credits of COMMS 496R (or if approved 1 credit of COMMS 399R.) Students may arrange additional courses with professors pertaining to their major and the type of internship work they will be performing. Students may not take other courses on this program, including BYU Online courses, without approval by the director and ISP.

COST
TUITION ONLY ($1,324-1,986)

Includes Latter-day Saint, undergraduate tuition (4-6 credit hours), and international health insurance.

Does not include airfare, public transportation, meals (variable), housing, personal expenses (variable), and visa.
TRAVEL
Students are responsible for purchasing their own airfare to and from the program sites. Airline reservations must be made through BYU Travel. Students should contact a BYU Travel agent, 280 HRCB, (801) 422-6293, travel@byu.edu

PREPARATION
Students need to be admitted to the communications program and have completed the prerequisites for COMMS 496R. Prerequisite courses are different for each emphasis and can be found by contacting the Communications Internship Office, 280 BRMB, (801) 422-5836, comms_internship@byu.edu. Although English is the lingua franca for these Area Offices, having other language skills is helpful (including German, French, and Chinese).

Accepted students are required to participate in an international, cross-cultural preparation course (IAS 201, 1 credit hour) held during the second block of the semester before departure. Part-time students will need to pay an additional tuition fee for enrolling in the prep class.

Accompanying spouses need to be credit-bearing participants on the program. They will also need to apply online, take the preparation course, make program payments, and any additional housing costs.

Students must meet all country- and program-specific COVID and health requirements for travel.

FUNDING SOURCES
Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to study abroad programs. Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB) will be considered for a study abroad scholarship and may be considered for other scholarships. Interns at both locations may be eligible to receive a grant from the School of Communications that can be applied to internship costs. Priority is given to students based on seniority and qualifications. Amount awarded will be determined after acceptance to the program.

Seniors should also apply for the Oscarson Discovery Grant for additional funding. For more info, please contact the Communications Internship Office. Qualified students are eligible to apply for a School of Communication scholarship upon acceptance into the program. This scholarship is based on financial need beyond the initial grants. Interns are eligible for an additional $1,000. Scholarships are not guaranteed.

Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/scholarships).

APPLICATION PROCESS
BYU welcomes students from any university to apply to participate on our study abroad programs. However, internships and direct enrollment programs are limited to BYU Provo students.

Visit comms.byu.edu/church-communication-internships and download the information packet before applying online. Complete the online application at kennedy.byu.edu/isp-apply. A nonrefundable $35 application fee is required.

Applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete.

Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program. Winter Deadline: 3 October 2022, Spring-Summer Deadline: 28 January 2023; and Fall: 22 February 2023

FACULTY
Steven Thomsen is the faculty director for this program from the School of Communications.
324 BRMB, (801) 422-2078, steven.r.thomsen@gmail.com

SCHEDULE AND TIME COMMITMENT
The duration of the program will not exceed 90 days. Students are responsible for visa arrangements. ISP can provide support in this process. Frankfurt, Germany Internship: Program participants can enter, travel, and live in the European Union for no longer than 90 days under the visa waiver.

INTERESTED STUDENTS SHOULD CONTACT
International Study Programs
101 HRCB | (801) 422-3686 | isp@byu.edu | http://kennedy.byu.edu/isp

Communications Internship Coordinator
280 BRMB | (801) 422-5836 | comms_internship@byu.edu

PROGRAM ADJUSTMENTS
International Study Programs (ISP) reserves the right to cancel this program, revise its offerings, or make any adjustments to the preliminary cost. If it becomes necessary for ISP to cancel a program, all program payments made to BYU ISP will be refunded to the student's BYU Financial account. ISP is the only office authorized to cancel any of its programs.