Transport yourself to a time when Notre-Dame Cathedral first opened its doors, when kings jousted beneath the castle walls of the Louvre, when the Eiffel Tower pierced the clouds, when Monet and Picasso walked the streets as unknown visionaries, and when Van Gogh longed for the stars. Minds will be expanded, breath will be quickened, worlds will be created, the Metro will be ridden, and crêpes will be savored. Not a bad way to spend a summer term. Most of our time will be spent in Paris itself, although we venture out on day trips to Chartres, Versailles, Giverny, Saint-Germain-en-Laye, Meudon, etc. We will also take an extended journey to the south of France for a week.
