

PERU BUSINESS STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAM

DIRECT ENROLLMENT WINTER or FALL 2023

Students will attend classes at Universidad ESAN (ESAN) in Lima, Peru. Lima, the second oldest capital city in South America, was founded by the Spanish conquistador Francisco Pizarro and named “the City of Kings.” Lima features heavily visited summer beaches to the north and south of the city, as well as sporting a vibrant and active theatre scene. Lima is rated as the gastronomical capital of Latin/South America by several magazines and newspapers. ESAN was the first business school in Peru to be AMBA-accredited, it demonstrates first-class quality in its region, and it is an active school on the international level.

DATES

Winter: March–July 2023

Fall: August–December 2023

HOUSING

Students are responsible for making their own housing arrangements. No on-campus housing is available. The Global Business Center, along with the host institution, may help with finding appropriate housing.

COURSES

Students may take courses in both English and Spanish. A broad spectrum of business classes is offered. This program is designed for business majors and only select business courses are guaranteed to transfer. Many courses will count for Marriott School courses and toward the Global Business Certificate. Many courses feature learning experiences designed to actively involve students with the people, history, arts, attitudes, and traditions of Peru. All courses must be pre-approved before the trip by the Marriott School’s Whitmore Global Business Center. For a list of courses available at ESAN, please visit the GBC (360 TNRB).

COST

$3,152 (tuition only)

Includes Latter-day Saint undergraduate full tuition (increased cost for graduate and non-Latter-day Saint students); students will be exempt from ESAN tuition. Students will also need to pay the $35 ISP application fee. BYU tuition payment plans and scholarships are still applicable.

Does not include airfare to and from Peru, visa fees, ground transportation, accommodations, meals, and any other educational and personal expenses incurred during the program.

TRAVEL

Students are responsible for purchasing their own airfare to and from the program sites. Airfare reservations must be made through BYU Travel. Students should contact a BYU Travel agent.

PREPARATION

Accepted students are required to participate in our Study Abroad preparation course (IAS 201, 1 credit hour) during the second-block of winter semester.

Accompanying spouses need to be credit-bearing participants on the program. Spouses will also need to apply online and take the preparation course.

Students must meet all country- and program- specific COVID and health requirements for travel.

FUNDING SOURCES

Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to study abroad programs.

Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB) will be considered for a study abroad scholarship and may be considered for other scholarships.

Academic departments and colleges may assist with scholarships and grants.

Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/scholarships).

APPLICATION PROCESS

BYU welcomes students from any university to apply to participate on our study abroad programs. However, internships and direct enrollment programs are limited to BYU Provo students.

Students must be 18 years of age or older to participate.

Complete the online application at kennedy.byu.edu/isp-apply. A nonrefundable $35 application fee is required; applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete.

Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program. The first payment is due upon acceptance.

Application Deadline: 14 October 2022 (Winter); 17 February 2023 (Fall)

FACULTY

The Student Exchange Program (SEP) is an independent international experience. SEP is individual students immersing themselves with local and international students on a foreign campus for a semester independent of any BYU professor or other BYU students.

SCHEDULE AND TIME COMMITMENT

Students should refrain from scheduling late arrivals to host country.

PROGRAM ADJUSTMENTS

International Study Programs (ISP) reserves the right to cancel this program, revise its offerings, or make any adjustments to the preliminary cost. If it becomes necessary for ISP to cancel a program, all program payments made to BYU ISP will be refunded to the student's BYU financial account. ISP is the only office authorized to cancel any of its programs.
