

GLOBAL LAW SEMINAR: DUBAI

EXTERNSHIP FALL 2023

Learn law in Dubai! Take international law and business courses while participating in an exciting externship with providers actively involved in international transactions and litigation. Dubai is an English-speaking city at the center of countless global deals and is a key hub for the Middle East; it is also one of the safest and most modern places to live, with world-class public transportation. Experience a semester learning law in one of the world's most important cities.

DATES

30 August–8 December 2023

(Dates are tentative, official dates TBA)

HOUSING

BYU Law will coordinate with the students and provide acceptable living arrangements for the duration of the externship. Accommodations will be apartment-style living so the students can cook their own meals.

COURSES

Students will spend approximately thirty hours per week working at their externship (for 6–9 credit hours) and then will take one or two 3-credit classes to be taught by distance learning, such as:

LAW 602—Administrative Law

LAW 659—Public International Law

Participants may not take any other courses on this program, including BYU Online courses, without approval by the program director and ISP.

COST

Students pay full-time Law School tuition which will cover housing, externship placement, online instruction by law faculty, and international health insurance coverage. Additionally, a nonrefundable $200 deposit will be required in order to secure placement in the program if accepted.

Does not include airfare, visa, local transportation in Dubai, personal expenses, or meals.

Cost for Accompanying spouses: $5,500 (approx.)

Accompanying spouse cost covers Latter-day Saint BYU Graduate tuition for 1 credit hour and housing in Dubai. Does not include airfare, local transportation in Dubai, personal expenses, or meals.

Any accompanying children are required to have international health insurance coverage through the program, which costs an additional $500 per child.

TRAVEL

Students are responsible for purchasing their own airfare to and from the program. Airline reservations must be made through BYU Travel. Students should contact a BYU Travel agent.

PREPARATION

Passports must be valid for at least six months beyond the end of the program.

Students accepted to the program must participate in a required 1 credit hour preparation course, which will include instructions regarding respecting the host country's culture and laws.

Accompanying spouses need to be credit-bearing participants on the program; they will need to apply online.

Students must meet all country- and program-specific COVID and health requirements for travel.

FUNDING SOURCES

Regular full-time Law School tuition scholarships and Federal Insured Student Loans and Pell Grants may be applied to international programs.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Students must be enrolled in the J.D. program at the Law School and must be 18 years of age or older to participate.

Complete the online application at kenedy.byu.edu/isp-apply.

A nonrefundable $35 application fee is required; applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete.

Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program. The first payment is due upon acceptance.

Application Deadline: 17 February 2023
