Humanities Track: Complete four courses from the following: Any 300- or 400-level art history, film, humanities, literature, or philosophy course with a European emphasis. Certain 200-level courses may also count toward this requirement. Prior to registration each semester, the European Studies coordinator will distribute a list of courses that will count toward this requirement.	THE DISCIPLINE: European Studies is an interdisciplinary degree that combines advanced language study with Europe-related coursework in the humanities and social sciences. Courses are taught by Europeanists from a variety of academic disciplines, including history, political science, literature, language, art history, philosophy, sociology, geography, economics, and business. European Studies majors primarily take courses in the humanities and social sciences, developing strong foreign language skills, a deep understanding of European history, culture, and current affairs, and a commitment to global citizenship. Students also acquire advanced and transferable skills in research, analysis, communication, networking and collaboration.	MAP DISCLAIMER While every reasonable effort is made to ensure accuracy, there are some student populations that could have exceptions to listed requirements. Please refer to the university catalog and your college advisement center/department for complete guidelines.
REQUIREMENT 6 Complete 1 course 3.0 EUROP 490R - Senior Seminar in European Studies REQUIREMENT 7 Complete 9 hours of supporting course work. In consultation with the faculty coordinator, propose a list of advanced courses (typically 300- or 400- level) that are European focused and that have a coherent logic relative to educational and career goals. Note that courses approved for this requirement may not be used to fulfill any other European Studies requirement. No more than three credits may be double-counted between the European Studies major and another major or minor. Students may count up to three hours of European-related academic internship credit (usually IAS 399R) toward this requirement.	Building on their University Core and GE Foreign Language courses, students begin the major with an introduction to European Studies (Europ 200), a survey of European history (Hist 250), a survey of European humanities (Europ 320), two elective courses in European history, and a course in either Western or Eastern European politics (Poli 341 or 347). By their junior year, students should begin either the Social Sciences track or the Humanities track, each of which requires twelve hours of coursework. In their final year, students take the senior seminar in European Studies (Europ 490R) and nine hours of supporting coursework (which must be approved in advance by the European Studies faculty coordinator).	DEPARTMENT INFORMATION Heather Belnap, European Studies Faculty Coordinator Brigham Young University 208 HRCB Provo, UT 84602 Telephone: (801) 422-8242 heather_belnap@byu.edu ADVISEMENT CENTER INFORMATION Kennedy Center Advisement Brigham Young University 273 HRCB Provo, UT 84602 Telephone: (801) 422-3548 • toll-free (877) 890-5668 kennedy_advisement@byu.edu

At this interview, students will take a short assessment examination on European history, politics, and culture and will be asked to reflect on their progress in achieving the learning outcomes of the major, their experience in the program, and their life-long learning and career goals.	CLUBS AND HONOR SOCIETIES European Studies Student Association (ESSA), Model European Union, Model United Nations, International Society, foreign language clubs, choirs, and honor societies. CAREER OPPORTUNITIES: While a degree in European Studies can lead to a range of rewarding careers, majors in the discipline are strongly encouraged to supplement their degree with a study abroad experience, an international internship, and a minor or secondary major in a complementary field. Past graduates have found work in business, government, non-profit administration, and domestic and international teaching. Others have used the degree as a springboard to graduate studies in law, business, medicine, political science, public administration, international studies, history, literature, and language.
