“THIS BLESSED PLOT, THIS EARTH, THIS REALM, THIS ENGLAND”: LONDON AND THE CREATION OF BRITISH NATIONAL IDENTITY

STUDY ABROAD WINTER 2024

What does it mean to belong to a nation? What does it mean to have a nation as part of one's identity? How can we see our own identities and balance being citizens of our own nation and the world?

These are the questions we will explore in London and throughout Great Britain by attending concerts and other performances in the great venues of London, by visiting various churches and other important religious sites, by studying (in) important buildings, gardens and museums, and by touring the locations that shaped the works of iconic British writers. We will also study the development of the English language as we travel to see key artifacts at London's museums and encounter diverse varieties of English, which will inform our discussion about national identity and language.

DATES

9 January–15 April 2024 (approx.)

HOUSING AND MEALS AT THE LONDON CENTRE

Students will live at the BYU London Centre. Student participants are required to help in food preparation and clean-up. Because of the communal nature of the meals, the BYU London Centre cannot meet all special dietary needs, nor can it ensure a safe environment for those with food allergies. Please also note that other than a communal microwave, students do not have accommodations in the Centre, and may not bring their own accommodations to the Centre, to prepare food for themselves individually. If you have dietary or allergy concerns, we recommend that you speak with the International Study Programs office before you apply.

COURSES

Accepted students will be required to register for 12 credit hours, which consist of the following integrated courses:

FN ARTS 270R—From Abbey Road to Zadok the Priest: British National Identity in Music (fulfills GE Arts requirement) with Jaren Hinckley
LING 110—“My native English”: Development of the English Language and National Identity (fulfills GE Social Science requirement) with Jacquelyn Christensen
