We are both drawn to the stories humans tell. Together we will explore stories of empowerment, agency, education, and reconciliation associated with personal lives, social and political action, and public performance. We will treat the city of London as a unique performative space capable of rendering meaning when placed in the broader context of its expressions of culture, society, religion, and politics. In addition to encountering London through the traditional storytelling and performance venues for which the city is known, students will also explore stories in the city's parks and greenspaces, markets, and restaurants, religious and government buildings, and other cultural sites. Our studies will also take us from London to Northern Ireland and parts of Germany.

DATES
2 July – 17 August 2024 (approx.)

HOUSING AND MEALS AT THE LONDON CENTRE
Students reside and take classes in the London Centre in the vibrant, conveniently located West End neighborhood of Bayswater. The Centre is a short Tube ride from most central London attractions and just minutes by foot from Hyde Park, Kensington Gardens, and Notting Hill. Program costs include breakfast and dinner all days except Saturday, and students can generally lunch on sandwiches or leftovers. The Centre offers free laundry facilities, a library, a lounge, and Wi-Fi access.

All dinners and breakfasts at the London Centre are prepared and served communally. Students are required to help in food preparation and clean-up. Because of the communal nature of the meals, the BYU London Centre cannot meet all special dietary needs, nor can it ensure a safe environment for those with food allergies. Please also note that other than a microwave, students do not have individual cooking access in the Centre and may not bring their own small appliances to the Centre to prepare food for themselves individually. If you have dietary or allergy concerns, we recommend that you speak with the International Study Programs office, or program directors, before you apply.

COURSES
Accepted students will be required to register for the following courses:
UNIV 214R—Performance and the City. This survey or introductory approach to issues in the arts. Topics may include but are not limited to music, dance, fine art, design, film, interdisciplinary humanities, or area studies. This course satisfies the GE Arts Requirement.

UNIV218R—Topics in Social Sciences. This course will introduce students to tools social scientists use to understand how relationships, sociohistorical time, and sociopolitical contexts impact the stories women, children, and families tell. We will read texts varying from empirical social science articles to historical fiction. Through these stories, students will deepen their understanding of empowerment, agency, and reconciliation.
