Intern in the financial and cultural capital of the world: London England. Enjoy summer term in Great Britain while you are building your resume, networking, gaining excellent experience, and learning more about the world. Partnering with the Communications Internship and Career Services Office and the BYU London Centre, students will be placed in an internship in their field, housed in BYU approved housing, participate in additional cultural activities, and much more. A wide variety of companies and organizations are looking for student interns in career fields such as: Church communications, business, consulting, art, photography, design, finance, government & politics, human resources, journalism, media & publishing, PR & marketing, science, television & film, theatre & music, NGO's & non-profits, and much more.

DATES
Spring-Summer: May–July 2024 (approx.)
Fall: September–November 2024 (approx.)

HOUSING
Students will live in an apartment style living in the Kensington area of London near historic Hyde Park. Students are responsible for providing their own meals. Accommodations come with a refrigerator and cooking facilities are available either in the apartment or on each floor.

COURSES
Students are required to register for 1–4 credit hours during the program from the following courses:
- COMMS 496R (1–4 credits; Journalism, Advertising PR)
- COMMS 496R (1 credit; Comms Studies)
- COMMS 399R (1 credit, with approval)

Students may not take any other courses on this program, including BYU Online courses, without approval by the program directors and ISP. Please contact the Comms Internship & Career Services Coordinator.

COST
$6,100–6,600

Includes Latter-day Saint, undergraduate tuition for 1–4 credit hours (increased cost for graduate and non-Latter-day Saint students), internship placement and in-country support, accommodations, visa assistance for obtaining BUNAC tier 5 visa, and international health insurance coverage.
Does not include airfare, obligatory BUNAC tier 5 visa ($1,500 approx.), meals, transportation, personal expenses, or passport.

TRAVEL
Students are responsible for purchasing their own airfare to and from the program sites. Airline reservations must be made through BYU Travel. Students should contact a BYU Travel agent. BYU Travel | 280 HRCB | (801) 422-6293 | travel@byu.edu

PREPARATION
The internship is for Communications majors. Students will be responsible for obtaining a BUNAC Tier-5 visa and must start this process 3 months prior to the internship start date.

Accepted students are required to participate in an international, cross-cultural preparation course (IAS 369R, 1 credit hour) during the second block of winter semester 2024. Part-time BYU students will need to pay an additional tuition fee for enrolling in the prep class.

Spouses also need to be credit-bearing participants on the program; they must apply online and take the preparation course. Students must meet all country- and program-specific COVID and health requirements for travel.

FUNDING SOURCES
Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to study abroad programs. Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB) will be considered for a Study Abroad scholarship.

Academic departments and colleges may assist with scholarships and grants.
Students in the School of Communications may qualify for funding assistance and should review options on the school's website: comms.byu.edu
Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/scholarships).

APPLICATION PROCESS
BYU welcomes students from any university to apply to participate on our study abroad programs. However, internships and direct enrollment programs are limited to BYU Provo students. Students must be 18 years of age or older to participate.
Complete the online application at kennedy.byu.edu/isp-apply. A nonrefundable $35 application fee is required.
Students are to provide a professional résumé and letter of intent (about ¾ page) that includes 1) internship experience preference (Church Communication, Government Relations, General Communications); 2) a description of internship interests, skills, and qualifications. Students with questions about the application process can email comms_internship@byu.edu.
Applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete.
Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program.
The first payment is due upon acceptance. Please refer to the 2024 Payment Information page.

Deadline: 5 February 2024

FACULTY
Dr. Mark Callister is the current Director of the School of Communications at Brigham Young University. Prior to joining the BYU faculty in 2005, he taught at Western Illinois University. He received his Baccalaureate degrees in International Relations and in English and earned a master's in business administration at BYU. In addition, he received a PhD in Communication with an emphasis on theories of persuasion and marketing communications at the University of Arizona. His general research interests include adolescents and the media, visual imagery in advertising, and the role of persuasion in nonprofit fundraising and storytelling. He teaches courses in research methods, persuasion, and world religions and the media.
360B BRMB | (801) 422-6143 | mark_callister@byu.edu

SCHEDULE AND TIME COMMITMENT
Students should refrain from scheduling late arrivals or early departures.

INTERESTED STUDENTS SHOULD CONTACT
International Study Programs
101 HRCB | (801) 422-3686 | isp@byu.edu | kennedy.byu.edu/isp

Communications Internship Coordinator
280 BRMB | (801) 422-5836 | comms_internship@byu.edu

PROGRAM ADJUSTMENTS
International Study Programs (ISP) reserves the right to cancel this program, revise its offerings, or make any adjustments to the preliminary cost. If it becomes necessary for ISP to cancel a program, all program payments made to BYU ISP will be refunded to the student’s BYU financial account. ISP is the only office authorized to cancel any of its programs.