SAGE — A STUDY OF VIRTUE & RIGHTS, WHEN DID A CITY FLOURISH & WHY?
VENICE, VIENNA, PRAGUE, BUDAPEST, MUNICH
STUDY ABROAD GENERAL EDUCATION SUMMER 2024

What political conditions have been true when central Europe flourished? How did this flourishing appear in the arts, philosophy, science, and religion? Together we will explore the relationship between politics and expressions of human excellence in the big Central European cities: Venice, Vienna, Prague, Budapest, and Munich. Each experienced a “golden age”: Prague in the 14th century, Venice in the 15th century, Vienna and Budapest in the 19th century, Munich in the early 20th Century. What contributed to these golden ages? How did these societies redefine a good life based on those conditions and, in the process, leave profound historical legacies?
