

TÜBINGEN

DIRECT ENROLLMENT SUMMER 2024

Come summer, you will want to be sitting on the banks of the Neckar River or strolling down the Plantanenallee under 200-year-old plane trees in one of the most historic and picturesque cities in Germany: Tübingen. This magical city was recently voted as having one the highest qualities of living in Germany, and it has one of the most well-preserved districts of half-timbered houses. The University of Tübingen International Summer School offers courses in German and other disciplines (taught in German). This program is an intensive summer course during Summer Term only.

DATES

1 August–25 August 2024

HOUSING

The University of Tübingen will provide housing for you in local dorms and student apartments. This cost is included.

COURSES

Students are required to enroll in 6 credit hours during the summer term. Students may select any German courses between GERM 102–GERM 303, as well as GERM 311R, 343, 344, and 345R.

Students may not take any other courses on this program, including BYU Online courses, without approval by the program director and ISP.

COST

$1,700–2,200

Includes Latter-day Saint undergraduate full tuition (increased cost for graduate and non-Latter-day Saint students), housing, tuition to the University of Tübingen, international health insurance coverage, and amazing cultural events and group excursions.

Does not include airfare, preparation course tuition, passport, personal travel, meals, or an international cellphone data plan.

TRAVEL

Students are responsible for purchasing their own airfare to and from the program sites. Airfare reservations must be made through BYU Travel. Students should contact a BYU Travel agent.

PREPARATION

Students should complete GERM 101 prior to departure.

Accepted students are required to participate in an international, cross-cultural preparation course (IAS 201R, 1 credit hour). This class will be held during the second block of the Winter 2024 semester. Part-time BYU students and non-BYU students will need to pay an additional tuition fee. Accompanying spouses need to be credit-bearing participants on the program. Spouses will also need to apply online and take the preparation course.

Students must meet all country- and program-specific COVID and health requirements for travel.

FUNDING SOURCES

Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to study abroad programs. Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB) will be considered for a Study Abroad scholarship. Academic departments and colleges may assist with scholarships and grants. Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/scholarships).

If you commit to this program during fall semester, you are eligible for a DAAD scholarship that will cover most, if not all, of your costs for this program: <https://www.daad.de/deutschland/studienangebote/sommerkurse/en/detail/4899/>. The DAAD scholarship application deadline is 1 December. Plan ahead, as it takes a few days to gather materials to submit your application.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Students must be 18 years of age or older to participate. Complete the online application at kennedy.byu.edu/isp-apply. A nonrefundable $35 application fee is required; applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete. Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program. The first payment is due upon acceptance.

Application Deadline: 1 January 2024
