Explore Europe's rich history through an intensive internship provided by the Church History Department in Europe Area Offices and affiliated partners of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Build bridges with local leaders, early converts, and modern-day pioneers to collect, preserve, and share the story of Latter-day Saints in context of Europe's diverse linguistic and cultural tapestry. Explore ancient ruins, traverse bustling markets, and witness breathtaking landscapes that are the backdrop of living history today. Expand your worldview while helping to tell Church history in context of global events. Illuminate overlooked narratives and create a legacy for future generations, inspiring them to question, explore, and embrace new perspectives.

After intensive training in Frankfurt, interns will be sent to various countries across Europe based on project needs, student interests, and language abilities. All interns will work in pairs or in small groups alongside local experts all across Europe.
