ABOUT

SOGANG UNIVERSITY

Founded by the American Jesuits in 1960, Sogang has been regarded as one of the most selective and prestigious universities in South Korea.

It gained its fame and reputation in the 60’s-70’s as many of Sogang’s faculty members had helped spur South Korea’s economic development by serving in top cabinet positions in the government, making the university an attractive choice for students.

In particular, among the mid-sized universities (those without medical college, arts and sports college), Sogang has been understood as the top school in Korea.
