

Ask Me Anything

How to Become a Management Foreign Service Officer

MON | 10 JUN 2024

NOON

257 HRCB

Mark Carter is a Management Officer currently serving in Dushanbe, Tajikistan. He has also served in Saudi Arabia, Poland, and Brazil with his wife and children. Before joining the Foreign Service in 2012, he enjoyed a successful 15-year career in management at IBM and in the Localization industry. He completed both graduate and undergraduate studies at BYU, with a BA in Spanish, minors in Management and International Relations and an MBA. He was born in Washington State but raised in Chile, Mexico, Colombia, and Guatemala. He is bilingual in Spanish, fluent in Portuguese, and studied Polish and Russian at FSI. Learn about the Foreign Service Officer Test, family life abroad, and compare private sector and government service careers.

Lunch provided from 180 Tacos.

*Foreign Service
Student Organization*

BYU Kennedy Center