

LONDON

INTERNSHIPS 2026

Intern in London—a city at the crossroads of the US and European culture and a hub for global business and politics. An internship in London will provide you with valuable real-world experience that will set you apart when applying for future employment and/or academic programs. Professional internships are available in an array of fields, including technology, business, non-profit, marketing, government, banking, fine arts, startups, creative industries, and hospitality.

DATES

All dates approximate.

Winter 2026: 10 Jan–8 Apr

Sp/Su 2026: 9 May–5 Aug

Fall 2026: 12 Sep–9 Dec

HOUSING

Students have an apartment-style living arrangement in the Kensington area of London, near historic Hyde Park. Students are responsible for providing their own meals. Accommodations come with a refrigerator, and cooking facilities are available either in the apartment or on each floor.

COURSES

Students are required to enroll in a minimum of 12 credit hours per semester (6 credit hours per term of spring-summer combined). Interns may choose from the following courses according to language skills:

IAS 380R—Proofs of Cultural Immersion (3 credit hours)

IAS 399R or equivalent—Academic Internship: International (9 variable credit hours)

Students may not take any other courses on this program, including BYU Online courses, without approval by the program director and ISP.

COST

Cost for full-time students: $7,500–8,000

Cost for accompanying spouses: $7,500–8,000

Includes Latter-day Saint undergraduate tuition, housing, internship placement, and international health insurance coverage. Does not include airfare, personal expenses, meals, BUNAC ($1,040), and UK visa ($439). Accompanying spouses are required to register for a minimum of 3 credits but are not required to do an internship.

TRAVEL

Students are responsible for purchasing their own airfare to and from the program. Airfare reservations must be made through BYU Travel. Students should contact a BYU Travel agent at BYU Travel | 801-422-6293 | travel@byu.edu | 280 HRCB.

PREPARATION

Passports must be valid for at least six months beyond the end of the program. Visas are required and should be applied for no later than three months prior to departure.

Students are required to participate in the prep course, IAS 369R, during the second block of fall semester for the winter program, and during the second block of winter semester for the summer and fall programs. Part-time BYU students and non-BYU students pay an additional $300 (approximately) tuition fee for enrolling in the required pre-departure class.

Accompanying spouses need to be credit-bearing participants on the program. Spouses also will need to apply online and take the preparation course.

International study programs are physically, emotionally, and mentally taxing and you must be in good health to participate. These programs often take place in international locations that do not have the same level of safety and services in terms of transportation, living conditions, residential accommodations, food, public behavior, and policing that you may be used to on campus. If you have further questions or concerns on this, please see <https://kennedy.byu.edu/isp-travel-policy>.

FUNDING SOURCES

Regular BYU tuition scholarships and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to international programs. Pell Grants may be applied to fall, winter, and sp-su semesters. Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application, and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB), will be considered for a Study Abroad scholarship. Academic departments and colleges may assist with scholarships and grants. Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/scholarships).

Students majoring in the Humanities who complete the preparation course and register for 3 hours of HCOLL 399R or departmental equivalent qualify for a College of Humanities program discount that ranges from $1,500–3,000, depending on one's FAFSA score. Students minoring in the Humanities who fulfill the aforementioned requirements receive half support. Contact Dr. Brown for details.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Students must be adults 18 years-of-age or older. Complete the online application at kennedy.byu.edu/isp-apply. The application requires a $35 fee. Applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete. Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program. The first payment is due upon acceptance.

Deadlines:

Winter: 15 October 2025; Sp-Su: 15 February 2026; Fall priority: 1 February 2026; Fall final: 1 June 2026

PROGRAM ADJUSTMENTS

International Study Programs (ISP) reserves the right to cancel this program, revise its offerings, or make any adjustments to the preliminary cost. If it becomes necessary for ISP to cancel a program, all program payments made to BYU ISP will be refunded to the student's BYU financial account. ISP is the only office authorized to cancel any of its programs.
