AMERICANS become CITIZENS

This week we will hear from Professors Alcaraz, Núñez, and Rensink about how people have become American citizens throughout United States history. Come for a discussion about how Angel and Ellis island worked as sites of naturalization for foreign immigrants, court cases that determined Chinese citizenship, and how one Native American leader worked to help his people be recognized as citizens.

Panelists:

Melissa Alcaraz
Sociology

Carolina Núñez
Law School

Brendan Rensink
History

Thu | 5 Nov
11 AM | 238 HRCB

BYU Kennedy Center
AMERICAN STUDIES

AMERICA at the CROSSROADS

AMERICA 250