

Academic Advisement

Our interdisciplinary structure creates a unique learning experience for students. You will develop a global perspective by taking classes from a variety of departments across campus. Faculty experts are anxious to share their expertise and knowledge. Meeting with an advisor early on will help you know how to best take advantage of the many available opportunities.