

Clubs

Clubs and Student Programs

A great way to connect with students who have similar interests and to get involved is by joining a club or student program. The Kennedy Center supports a number of clubs and organizations, visit the web site to learn more.

Or you can get involved with one of the many groups sponsored by other departments. These are non-Kennedy Center clubs or groups you might have an interest in.

Anti-Human Trafficking Club

BYU Peace and Conflict Resolution Society

Changemaker Clubs

Global Management Student Association (GMSA)

Humanities to Business Club

International Law Student Association

Military and National Security Club

Praemon

Nonprofit Management Student Association

Refugee Empowerment Club