

Costa Rica: Pure Life, Powerful Life

We received special training in the LDS Church Office Building in Salt Lake Center from the Self-Reliance Services team. We learned about the leadership of the Church and its role in the worldwide Self-Reliance Initiative, and how we can best be of help as we venture out into different parts of the world with different cultures and needs. We set out in pairs similar to missionaries, excited to share the good news of spiritual and temporal self-reliance through the Gospel of Jesus Christ! More...
