

Bicycle Thieves

Dir. Vittorio De Sica, 1948. Italian. 89 min.

A classic of Italian neorealist cinema, the film follows a desperate father who finally secures work, but his bicycle is stolen rendering him again unemployed. He and his young son's long search through an exhausted Rome reveals the divisions in society.

To watch this film, sign up here to receive the link by email. IC streaming will only be available to current BYU students, faculty, and staff. The film will be available to watch anytime from Wednesday to Saturday.