

Childhood in a Slum Space in Delhi

Gunjan Sharma is at BYU as a Fulbright-Nehru visiting scholar to conduct research in the area of higher education policy. Sharma will be making presentations on her research and other topics related to education in India while at BYU. She is a faculty member at Ambedkar University Delhi, and this is her first visit to the U.S.