

Creative World of Björn Dahlem

Room-sized creations representing complex ideas drawn from cosmology, astronomy, and physics are the base of this art. The abstract ideas are often assembled with flea market materials, salvaged wood, carpet fragments, and industrial neon lighting. Join us for a journey into a world of art you have not yet experienced.

Björn Dahlem has been a professor of sculpture at the Braunschweig University of Art since 2012. Dahlem was a guest professor at Berlin University of the Arts, Nuremberg Academy of Fine Arts, Karlsruhe Academy of Fine Arts, and Braunschweig University of Art. A native of Munich, he studied at the Kunstakademie Düsseldorf (1994–2000).
