

Knight-Hennessy Scholars Program

Dean Derrick Bolton, Stanford University Program's dean of admission, will be meeting with students to answer questions about a new graduate scholarship. The Knight-Hennessy Scholars program is a graduate-level scholarship aimed at preparing the next generation of global leaders to address the increasingly complex challenges facing the world.

Annually up to 100 high-achieving students with demonstrated leadership and civic commitment will receive full funding to pursue a graduate education at Stanford. Scholars may pursue studies at any of the university's seven internationally top-ranked graduate schools and will be educated to navigate across business, government, academia, and the nonprofit sectors.

This is an amazing opportunity for students looking to attend Stanford for graduate school. Please register prior to the event as seats are limited.

Lunch will be provided.
