

Papicha

Dir. Mounia Meddour, 2019. French/Arabic. 108 min.

Set in Algiers in the late 1990s during a Civil War between the Algerian Government and Islamist rebels, Papicha is based on the exploits of a student who organized a fashion show to resist efforts to control the female body.

View online at hummedia.byu.edu. To gain access to this movie, faculty and students should go to ic.byu.edu. The film will be available to watch anytime from Wednesday to Saturday.

Kennedy Center

Kennedy Center for International Studies

<https://kennedy.byu.edu>
