

Rheumatic Relief Samoa

Join us to learn about the Rheumatic Relief Internship program, an integrated clinical, public health, and research experience that seeks to reduce the suffering associated with this potentially fatal disease. The prevalence of rheumatic heart disease in Samoa is among the highest in the world, affecting up to 8 percent of the youth population.

Learn more and apply now.