

Summer 1993

Wednesday, 11 April: 5:30 p.m.

Friday, 13 April: 5:00 p.m.

Saturday, 14 April: 1:30 and 8:00 p.m.

Six-year-old Frida struggles to adapt to her new life in the countryside with her loving uncle and aunt's family following the death of her mother. Summer 1993 is an autobiographical film festival favorite that stunningly recreates the perspective and experience of a child.
