

Women and Politics and More

IAS 301 Kennedy Center Lecture Series (1 credit hour)

Wed, noon, 238 HRCB

The theme is “Women and Politics.” And the course begins Wed, 9 Jan with Introduction to IAS 301, and the first lecture will be Wed, 16 Jan with Kristin Matthews, BYU English Department, “Well-Read Black Women: Reading, Social Media, and the Contemporary Freedom Struggle”

IAS 397R Global Truth Commission Index

Orientation sessions: Mon, 17 Dec, 4:00 p.m.; Tue, 18 Dec, 11:00 a.m.;
Creativity and Innovation Design Studio, HBLL

Seeking candidates with an interest in creative solutions, change-making, and data processes. Join us for any of our orientation sessions to learn more. Download the PDF.

SW 595R Applied Global Research (2 credit hours)

Thu, 1:00-2:40 p.m.

This seminar will be a way to involve more students in research, whether they want to develop their own projects or get involved in projects with Professor Stacey Shaw. It will be a flexible class where students workshop their projects and questions and trace the entire research process from developing a question to disseminating results, focusing more on areas of specific student interests. Feel free to contact stacey_shaw@byu.edu with questions. Download the PDF.