

FALL 2017 COURSE

K'ICHE'-MAYAN LANGUAGE

Register Online
KICHE 101 First Year K'iche'
[4 credit hours]
TTH 6:00-7:50 PM

You will receive a linguistic introduction to the world of the Maya, ancient and contemporary. Whether you are interested in historical linguistics, pre-Columbian literature (Popol Wuj), archaeology, social anthropology, agriculture, Latin American Studies, or international development, this course will advance your understanding of indigenous Latin America.

FLAS funding is available for undergraduate and graduate students. These scholarships provide tuition and stipend money for students who plan to use their language skills in their future careers. Students who plan to enroll in the K'iche' classes should review the information about FLAS here: kennedy.byu.edu/flas.

For more information, please contact Malcolm Miguel Botto at malcolm_botto@byu.edu.

K'iche'-Mayan Language Course