

London Express

I came to BYU to learn to write for stage and screen. I particularly have a love of musicals and ballroom dancing. My goal is to one day write, direct and produce my own plays and films. As a big believer in the power of collaboration and the positive impact a well told story can make, particularly when accompanied by the mediums of music and dance, I am excited to be going to one of the world's greatest centers for the arts and history. This trip also has great personal value, for this land is the land of my forbears. I look forward to connecting to them as I walk the same streets they once did.

I invite you to join me as I explore the UK and France while I learn, work, socialize, and serve in this wonderful place. More...
