

Unfortunate Brothers: Korea's Reunification Dilemma

Join us for a BYU Broadcasting screening

Mr. Lee, a North Korean defector, is trying to adjust to life in South Korea. Through his intensely personal account, as well as interviews with government and military experts, “Unfortunate Brothers” focuses on the Korean unification riddle.

Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Free admission. RSVP at <http://byutv.org/audience>.

Q&A with filmmakers following the screening.

“Unfortunate Brothers” is the most recent addition to the Beyond the Border series, a collection of films covering war, geography, politics, history, and current affairs. Produced by Combat Films & Research for the David M. Kennedy Center at Brigham Young University, the series examines events, trends, and stories from around the world with an emphasis on international relations.

http://beyondtheborder.org/unfortunate_brothers.php

No Events