

THE MEANING OF THE WELFARE STATE: THE WELFARE STATE DEBATE AND DANISH LITERATURE

WEDNESDAY, 17 SEPTEMBER
NOON
238 HRCB

Lasse Horne Kjældgaard

DIRECTOR, THE SOCIETY FOR DANISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE IN COPENHAGEN

Lasse Horne Kjældgaard (born 1974) is the Director for The Society for Danish Language and Literature in Copenhagen and former Associate Professor of Danish literature at the University of Copenhagen. He serves as literary reviewer for the daily Politiken. Most recent book publications include: Tolerance - eller hvordan man lærer at leve med dem, man hader (with Thomas Bredsdorff, 2008), Sjælen efter døden: Guldalderens moderne gennembrud (2007) and textual critical editions of Karen Blixen, Den afrikanske Farm (2007) and Syv fantastiske Fortællinger (2012).