

Political Affairs Lecture Series: Practical Politics and Policymaking

Career Reflections: International Studies

Stan Taylor

Emeritus professor of political science, BYU

Thursday, 13 September
4:00 P.M.
238 HRCB

Stan Taylor is an emeritus professor of political science at BYU. Taylor has been a visiting professor at universities in Wales, England, and New Zealand. He was the founding director of the David M. Kennedy Center for International Studies at BYU, served as chair of BYU's Political Science Department, and was a senior staff member on the U.S. Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. Before coming to BYU, Taylor taught at Bentley College in Massachusetts.

Lecture will be followed by a Q&A session.