

WRITING WINNING ESSAYS

STRATEGIES, TIPS, EXAMPLES,
AND INSIGHTS FOR SUCCESSFUL
SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS

WEDNESDAY, 10 OCTOBER

Prestigious international and area studies scholarships offer significant financial rewards, prestige, and a stamp of approval to help you throughout your career. Many BYU students apply, but only a few are accepted.

Have you wondered what it's like to be on the "inside" reading scholarship, grant, or other application essays? How can you stand out and what can you learn from key faculty who direct federal grants and have specific experience reviewing application essays?

Faculty will provide briefs on conceptualizing your essay writing strategies, tips, and examples with time for personal interaction with faculty and administrators.

Eric Hyer, director, Asian Consortium

Dana Bourgerie, director, Chinese Flagship Center

Cory Leonard, assistant director, Kennedy Center

Maggie Nassif, managing director, NMELRC

Carolyn Tuitupou, assistant dean, National Scholarships and Programs

Refreshments will be served.
