

THE RING AND THE CROSS: TOLKIEN AND LEWIS

Paul Kerry, associate professor of history, BYU, and Tim Slover, associate professor of theatre and media arts, University of Utah

WEDNESDAY, 9 NOVEMBER
4:00 P.M.
238 HRCB

Paul Kerry recently edited and contributed to The Ring and the Cross: Christianity and The Lord of the Rings (2011). Kerry has researched in the history of European and transatlantic ideas and has published on Goethe, Schiller, Carlyle, and Franklin and has a forthcoming book on German intellectual history. His recent American Historical Association panel will be featured in the journal Fides et Historia. Kerry has held visiting fellowships at Cambridge and Princeton and is a Fellow of the Royal Historical Society.

Tim Slover is an associate professor of theatre at the University of Utah. Slover's publications include the Christmas Chronicles and Joyful Noise. His plays have been produced off-Broadway and in professional regional and university theatres in the U.S., UK, and Canada, and his screenplay credits include A More Perfect Union, which won a Cine Golden Eagle and was nominated for an Emmy. He has been the recipient of the Christopher Brian Wolk Award for Playwriting Excellence and a Hopwood Award for Best Play. Slover was appointed Writer-in-Residence at the Philadelphia Alumni Writers House at Franklin & Marshall College in 2006. His current film project is Perilous Realm.

CENTER for the study of EUROPE