The Europe Art History Study Abroad program offers students the opportunity for intensive, on-site study of art and architecture in Greece, Italy, Spain, Germany, France, and England. Some of the places we will visit include the ancient ruins of Athens and Rome, Byzantine and medieval churches in Ravenna, Toledo, and Chartres, the Renaissance churches of Florence and Venice, and baroque palaces in Berlin and Versailles. Students will study in dozens of museums, including the British Museum, the Vatican, the Prado, the Alte Nationalgalerie, the Louvre, the Musée d’Orsay, the Uffizi, and the Tate.

DATES
25 April–4 June 2016

HOUSING
Students will be housed in hotels.

COURSES
Students will register for 6 credit hours during the program:
ARTHC 492R, section 1 Special Topics: Art and Architecture of the Ancient and Medieval World (3 credit hours)
ARTHC 492R, section 2 Special Topics: Art, Architecture, and Visual Culture from the Renaissance to the Present (3 credit hours)

COST
$5,700–6,200

Includes LDS, undergraduate full tuition (increased cost for grads and non-LDS), housing, transportation within Europe, admissions, and international health insurance coverage.

PREPARATION
It is expected that participating students will have completed ARTHC 201 and 202 (or IHUM 201 and 202) prior to leaving for Europe.

Accepted students are required to participate in an international, cross-cultural preparation course (IAS 201, 1 credit hour). This evening course will be held during the second block of winter semester 2016. (Part-time and non-BYU students will need to pay an additional $270 tuition fee for enrolling in the prep class.)

Accompanying spouses need to be credit-bearing participants on the program. Spouses will also need to apply online and take the preparation course.

FUNDING SOURCES
Regular BYU tuition scholarships, Pell Grants, and Federal Insured Student Loans may be applied to study abroad programs.

Students who submit the financial aid section of the ISP application and who have a current FAFSA form on file at the Financial Aid Office (A-41 ASB) will be considered for a study abroad scholarship and may be considered for other scholarships. They must indicate on their original online application that they want to be considered for financial aid.

Academic departments and colleges may assist with scholarships and grants. Limited scholarships are available to Humanities majors.

Private grants and scholarships outside of BYU may also assist (see kennedy.byu.edu/scholarships).

APPLICATION PROCESS
Complete the online application at kennedy.byu.edu/apply
The application requires a $35 fee
Applicants will be interviewed once the application is complete
Students will be notified via e-mail of their acceptance into the program
Priority Deadline: 5 December 2015

FACULTY
Professors Heather Belnap Jensen and Mark Johnson are the Faculty Directors of the program from Art History. Jensen is a specialist in modern European art and Johnson is a specialist in ancient to medieval art and architecture. Both have led several study abroad programs in Europe.

SCHEDULE AND TIME COMMITMENT
Students should plan to be with the group in Europe from 25 April to 4 June and refrain from scheduling late arrivals or early departures.
