

European Studies Lecture
Spring 2006

UK–U.S. Relations

Frank R. Baker

British Counsellor, Foreign and Security Policy, British Embassy, Washington, D.C.

Friday, 12 May

NOON

238 HRCB

Frank R. Baker's expertise is UK policy in relation to U.S. policy, and his other interests cover transatlantic relations, the Iraq war, Iran nuclear issues, Afghanistan, the Middle East peace process, and the future of Europe. Baker has been a member of the British diplomatic corps for twenty-five years, with service in Buenos Aires, Argentina; Panama City, Panama; and Ankara, Turkey. Prior to his current appointment, he was head of the Africa Department at the Foreign and Commonwealth Office in London. He enjoys golf, cricket, watching football (Charlton Athletic FC), rock music, sailing, and rallying. Baker and his wife, Maria Pilar Fernandez, are the parents of one son and one daughter.