

“The African First World War—An International Conspiracy?”

Rigobert N. Butandu

an expert in African and international affairs

Wednesday, 11 May
NOON
238 HRCB

Rigobert N. Butandu, author of Forgotten War: The Criminal Invasion of the DR Congo: The International Conspiracy Unveiled, received a master's degree in international and comparative law from BYU. Butandu says the 1998–2000 invasion of the DR Congo was a deliberate act with economic intent. In spite of the illegality of the move, he claims the U.S., UN, and the international community at large failed to condemn Rwanda and Uganda for their actions that resulted in the death of over 3.5 million Congolese and the country's plunder.