

Global Awareness Lecture
Winter 2008

Central America in Transition: A Circular History

Thomas L. Percy

Professor of history, Slippery Rock University

Wednesday, 30 January
NOON
238 HRCB

Thomas L. Percy, a professor of history at Slippery Rock University in Pennsylvania, previously taught at Brigham Young University for seven years and has taught at five universities throughout the Americas. Percy is the author of five books and many scholarly articles, has been a senior Fulbright scholar to Panama, and continues to work with the U.S. Department of State in various capacities. He received an MA in American history from Purdue University and a PhD in Latin American history from the University of Miami. Percy, his wife, and their three children have loved traveling in Latin America and currently enjoy living in close proximity to family in the east.