‘I’ll Go Where You Want Me to Go’: Managing Security Risks Worldwide

J. Gregory Dunn

managing director of security, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

Wednesday, 3 November
NOON
238 HRCB

Gregg Dunn oversees global security for the Church with more than twenty-five years experience in security risk management, major criminal investigations, forensic audits, and security program design. Dunn is a certified public accountant and a former special agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Prior to his current position, Dunn was the deputy head of security for British Petroleum, where he managed global security operations in the Western Hemisphere and Asia Pacific. He was also one of BP’s managers in the fraud deterrence program. Dunn received a BS in accounting from BYU (1978) and is certified as a fraud examiner and as a protection professional with the American Society of Industrial Security.
