

Global Focus Lecture

Spring Term 2005

The Consular Policy Tool: Insights into U.S.–Poland Relations

Patrick Slowinski

Foreign service officer

Wednesday, 8 June

NOON

238 HRCB

---

International Careers: Working in an Embassy

3:00 P.M.
230 SWKT

---

Patrick Slowinski is currently assigned to the U.S. Embassy in Warsaw, Poland. Slowinski was nominated as one of the Secretary of State's Hometown Diplomats for 2005 and is an official Foreign Service Institute Mentor. His career and research interests include consular affairs, public diplomacy, international education, and career development for government employees. Previous to his commission as a Foreign Service Officer he was employed as an academic and career advisor in the University Advisement Center at BYU, where he briefly occupied the position of International Student Academic Program Coordinator. He also was an adjunct member of the Linguistics Department Faculty for several years. Slowinski earned his doctorate degree in educational leadership and foundations at BYU (2002). He and his wife, Alyona, have two children.

