

THURSDAY
30 MARCH
238 HRCB

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY, PROVO, UTAH

SCHEDULE

1:00–1:15 P.M.

Welcome Overview

Jeff Ringer, director, David M. Kennedy Center for International Studies, BYU

1:15–2:45 P.M.

Negotiating with North Korea

L. Gordon Flake, The Maureen and Mike Mansfield Foundation

Mark Peterson, Korean section head, Asian and Near Eastern Languages, BYU

Scott Rembrandt, director of academic affairs and research, Korea Economic Institute

2:45–3:00 P.M.

Break/Refreshments

3:00–4:30 P.M.

Case Study of the Future: The South Korean Economy and Growth Opportunities

Kerk L. Phillips, associate professor of economics, BYU

Lee Kyong-yul, economic counselor, Embassy of the Republic of Korea

Yong-In S. Shin, executive vice president, Samsung Electronics Co.

4:30–5:00 P.M.

Taste of Korea:

Experience the food of Korea from Touch of Seoul, a local restaurant

5:00 P.M.

Seoul Train screening:

In the riveting documentary, filmmakers Jim Butterworth, Lisa Sleeth, and Aaron Lubarsky expose the life-and-death struggle faced by North Koreans who attempt to flee their homeland through China, a country that does not recognize their legal status as refugees. (<http://www.pbs.org/independentlens/seoultrain/film.html>)

For more information, please call (801) 422-1713.

TIGERS ON THE PENINSULA:
The Koreas in 2006

