

INTERNATIONAL FORUM SERIES

"American Perspectives on U.S.–China Relations"

Eric A. Hyer

Associate Professor of Political Science,
Brigham Young University

Wednesday
16 July
12:00 NOON
238 HRCB

Eric A. Hyer received his BA degree from BYU, and he received his MA, PhD, and certificate in Asian Studies from Columbia University. A 1995 Fulbright Scholar in Beijing, China, Hyer is an expert in Asian studies; his research focuses specifically on China's foreign policy. In 2000, he was associate producer of Helen Foster Snow: Witness to Revolution, a documentary film on Helen Foster Snow (see <http://kennedy.byu.edu/bridges/bridgesF2000.pdf>). Hyer currently serves as BYU–China Special Country Focus liaison. He is the editor and author of several articles on China's territorial issues. Currently, he is completing a book-length comparative study of China's boundary disputes and settlements.

This lecture will be webcast live. Those interested in finding out more about the International Forum Series will find archived lectures and a calendar of upcoming speakers on the Kennedy Center web site at <http://kennedy.byu.edu/events>.

Sponsored by the David M. Kennedy Center for International Studies.