

Ambassadorial Insights Lecture
Fall 2008

Security and Peace Building in Eurasia—Threats, Challenges and Perspectives

His Excellency

Nicolae Chirtoaca

Moldovan ambassador to the U.S.

Monday, 17 November

NOON

238 HRCB

Nicolae Chirtoaca became ambassador to the U.S. in 2006, having previously served as director of the European Institute for Political Studies in Moldova (2003–06), director of the Euro-Atlantic Center of Moldova (1999–2006), and director of the Invisible College of Moldova (1998–2006). In addition, Chirtoaca was senior state advisor to the prime minister, press secretary of the government (1999), vice chairman of the Liberal Party (1994–98), as well as state advisor to the office of the president (1992–94).

